

Amoeba Sisters Video Recap: Nature of Science

1. What is the scientific method? Is there just one universal scientific method? Why or why not?

Reflect on what was discussed in the video.

How would you complete these general sentence stems regarding the nature of science?

Note: It's important to remember that this video only mentions some components of the nature of science! The below sentence stems can contain more characteristics, which we encourage you to discuss and consider.

2. Science has a major goal of:

3. Science can lead to the development of:

4. It's important to know that science is:

5. Why is it important to verify the credibility of a source when researching a topic?

6. What does it mean if a science paper is peer-reviewed and why is this significant?

7. Observations and inferences are important in science. How would you explain the difference between the two words?	8. Constants (“controlled variables”) and a control are easily confused by students! How would you explain the difference between the two words?	9. Why is a control group generally very important in an experiment?
---	---	--

A pink, blob-like character with large black eyes, a pink star on its head, and a blue and white striped scarf. It has a small pink circle on its chest and a small cloud-like shape above its head.